Product: OSOM® Flu SARS-CoV-2 Combo Home Test (P/N 1074)
Subject: Kit Expiry Date Extension

Dear Valued Customer,

SEKISUI Diagnostics' request to extend the shelf life of the OSOM Flu SARS-CoV-2 Combo Home Test (P/N 1080) from 12 months to a maximum of 20 months was approved by the FDA on July 2, 2025.

This letter is to notify you that there are OSOM Flu SARS-CoV-2 Combo Home Test kits that may now have a new expiration date which is different than what you see printed on the kit box.

Please consult the table attached to this message to verify the new expiry date for your kit(s). If your kit's lot number is not included in the table, please use the expiration date printed on the outer kit box. For your convenience, a date extension label containing a QR code linking to FDA OTC COVID-19 Tests is provided on your kit. The QR code will link you directly to the FDA website, which lists the kits that have been extended. To quickly search, type OSOM Combo in the search box to query directly to the OSOM Flu SARS-CoV-2 Combo Home Test. Next, click on the Extended Expiration Date link to pull up the list of kits that have been extended.

Please do not hesitate to contact SEKISUI Diagnostics Technical Support with any questions or concerns at 800-332-1042 or via email at techservices@sekisuidiagnostics.com.

Sincerely,
